

Privacy and Cookies Statement

Please read these terms and conditions carefully as they will help you make informed decisions about how to share your personal information with NUPROXA. Although these terms and conditions apply only to information collected through the website, they are consistent with our policies and practices regarding the personal information we receive.

General

This Statement on Privacy and Cookies applies to all personal information collected and used by NUPROXA responsible for the corresponding part of the website. The Privacy and Cookie Statement is based on NUPROXA's Binding Corporate Rules for customer, supplier and business partner data. NUPROXA responsible for the relevant part of the website is hereinafter referred to as NUPROXA

NUPROXA respects your privacy and complies with the provisions of European data privacy legislation, and if applicable, local data protection legislation.

Cookies

We will only store devices called "cookies" on your computer when you have given us your consent by clicking on the relevant buttons during your visit to the website. "Cookies" are small text files that your browser stores locally on your computer. This will allow us to identify your computer the next time you visit us. In this way, NUPROXA will be able to improve the usability of the website and adjust it to your needs. Most Internet browsers are set to accept these cookies automatically.

The type of personal information we collect as a result of the installation of a cookie is specific to your computer and may include the IP (Internet Protocol) address, the date and time of your access to our website and the parts of the website that are visited. We collect such personal information to monitor the use and usefulness of our website, for statistical purposes and to send you information about our society and our (new) products and services that are of interest to you.

You can set your browser to notify you of the receipt of a cookie or to refuse to receive it. You can also withdraw your consent at any time by re-entering our website and selecting the appropriate options. By changing the settings, you can also set your browser not to accept cookies from this website. In such a case, you should be aware that you may no longer be able to use all the possibilities and functions of our website.

Google Analytics

We are currently using Google Analytics to analyse visits to the website and improve our content. Google Analytics does not collect personal information. For more information about the Google Analytics privacy policy, please see: Google Analytics

Data collection, purpose and recipients

We collect personal data when you provide it to us (e.g. name, address, postal code, city, telephone number and email address), through registration, filling in forms or emails, as part of an order for products or services, inquiries or requests or in other situations where you choose to provide us with personal information.

Your data will be processed for the purposes of executing any agreement, between you and NUPROXA, to respond to a request from you for information or advice, to comply with legal or other legal requirements, to provide an optimal service and to send you information about our company and our (new) products or services that are of interest to you.

We may provide your data to our group of companies in NUPROXA for the same purposes referred to above. Our group companies will also process your data in accordance with NUPROXA Binding Corporate Rules for customer, supplier and business partner data and this Privacy and Cookie statement.

Disclosure of data to third parties

NUPROXA may contract with third parties. These third parties process your data when performing the relevant services in their processing capacity for NUPROXA and NUPROXA has taken the necessary technical and organizational precautions to ensure that your data is processed exclusively for the purposes mentioned above.

Children

Nuproxa websites are not intended for use by persons under the age of sixteen (16), so we will not knowingly allow any such visitor to use them.

Links to other sites

You should be aware that the NUPROXA Privacy and Cookie Statement does not apply to other websites not belonging to NUPROXA, in the event that:

- Access these other sites using a link on our website or

- You link to our site from another website.

This website may contain in laces to other sites that may be of interest to you. Once you click on these links and leave our page, we no longer have control over the site to which you are redirected and therefore we are not responsible for the terms or privacy or the protection of your data on those other third party sites. Such sites are subject to their own privacy policies so it is advisable that you consult them to confirm that you agree with these

Right of access/rectification/objection

Whenever you wish, you may request access to your data and/or the rectification and/or deletion thereof if such data are incorrect or irrelevant for the aforementioned purposes. To do this, send us the request for access, rectification or deletion of your personal data to e-mail.

At any time you may object to the use of your data for direct marketing purposes.

The European Union General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR") and other applicable data protection laws grant certain rights to data subjects. Generally speaking, you have, or may have, the right (as set out in more detail in applicable data protection laws) to:

- Request details of the information we hold about you and how we process it
- Delete your personal information or rectify it, if it is inaccurate or if it has been deleted
- Restrict our processing of your personal information
- Withdraw a previously provided consent for the processing of your personal information
- Stop unauthorized transfers of your personal information to a third party
- That your personal information is transferred to a third party
- Complain about our processing of your personal information to a local supervisory authority

It is important to note that these rights may not be absolute. For example, if you withdraw your consent to process your personal information, we may continue to process your personal information to the extent required or permitted by law, in particular in relation to the exercise and defence of our legal rights or our legal and/or regulatory obligations.

Maintenance period

NUPROXA will not keep personal data obtained through this website for longer than necessary, unless an applicable regulation requires a longer retention period.

How do we protect your data?

NUPROXA handles your personal data with the greatest care. We have taken various technical and organizational measures to protect your personal data against loss and misuse. To do this, we protect our systems in compliance with the applicable security controls of the information security standards.

This company will not sell, assign or distribute personal information that is collected without your consent, unless required by a judge with a court order.

Terms and conditions updates

It reserves the right to change the terms of this Privacy Policy at any time.

As the website is updated periodically, our terms and conditions may change at any time. Therefore, please review the privacy terms and conditions posted from time to time. Where warranted, we will notify you of material changes in the way we treat personal information by posting a notice on the website or by sending you an email (if you have provided us with your email address and permission to use it).

CAN-SPAM LAW

For sending emails NUPROXA does not use false or misleading header information or subjects. The information sent corresponds to the work of business strictly and does not offer promotions of products or services or commercial announcements.
